

Join the TCPI Patient & Family Advisory Council

What is the Patient/Family Advisory Council (PFAC)?

The PFAC is a group of dedicated parents and patients (older children) who want to help make pediatric care better in their community.

The PFAC will meet on a quarterly basis to contribute to enhancing:

- Patient access to care
- Family-centered care that is culturally sensitive
- Transitional care across various settings
- Other areas involving patient care

What is TCPI?

TCPI, a grant awarded to Rady Children's Hospital-San Diego and Children's Hospital of Orange County, stands for Transforming Clinical Practice Initiative. The initiative aims to:

- Help improve quality, decrease cost, improve health and improve patient and provider satisfaction
- Use best practices to facilitate the right care at the right time

Who Can Be a Great Advisor?

- Someone excited to share his or her patient experience
- Someone who appreciates and respects different opinions
- Someone who enjoys collaborating with others to reach a common goal
- Someone who is a great listener

What to Expect

- Quarterly meetings at Rady Children's
- An hour collaborating with patients and families
- Food and refreshments

Spanish translation will be available.
